

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS COMMISSION

CONFIDENTIAL BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Instructions

A confidential biographical data report must be completed and filed by each person proposing to acquire a "significant interest" in a Palau financial institution and each "principal shareholder," "director," and "executive officer" proposed in connection with an application for a license to establish a new Palau financial institution.

The Executive Commissioner of the Financial Institutions Commission (Executive Commissioner) may request additional information or clarification of any information submitted. The Executive Commissioner may verify the accuracy and completeness of information provided in this report.

All responses to and all attachments to this biographical data report must be legibly printed in ink or typed. Questions must be answered completely and may not be left blank. If the answer is "No," "None," or "Not Applicable," so state. If an item of information is unknown to you, so state. To the extent possible, questions should be answered in the spaces provided; additional pages may be inserted, if necessary. Information on insert pages must be keyed by number and letter to the appropriate questions. An inaccurate or incomplete report may be rejected, could result in a delay in processing the application and could lead to denial.
